A Technicolor dye transfer* printing error
 Mis-registers a 1967 B-Western
 Revealing Cyan ghosts
 And Cinema's psychedelic underpinnings

*As its name implies, the Technicolor(TM) dye transfer color process (1929-1977; 1997-2002) literally involved transferring subtractive dyes (cyan, magenta, yellow) in succession and in careful registration onto a single strand print stock.
